Young Lions win first world title for England in 51 years

D ominic Calvert-Lewin scored the winning penalty as England’s Under-20s beat Venezuela 1-0 to win the Under-20 World Cup yesterday, ending the nation’s 51-year wait for a global trophy. England’s last taste of World Cup glory came 51 years ago in 1966, when Martin Peters in 1966 – the last time England won a World Cup. Today, the Young Lions ended that streak.

MOVING ON

Capello to skipper China's Jiangsu Suning

But a disappointing season has led to Capello’s sacking by the Italian Football Federation, who have also made him the first coach to feature in three World Cups.

While China have moved on from their World Cup exit, they have a new coach in Capello. The former Italy and England manager is set to lead China to the World Cup in 2018.

Former Brazil player Cacau denies doping allegations

Cacau, 26, was named by Brazilian investigative newspaper Folha de Sao Paulo as one of the players who tested positive for a banned substance.

“IT IS ABSURD and I will prove it,” Cacau said in a statement.

But the former Brazil striker is expected to be out of the World Cup after disagreeing with the Brazilian Football Confederation’s decision to suspend him for 18 months.

But Capello’s first taste of a major international tournament ended in disappointment as England were eliminated after losing on penalties to Germany in the last 16 of the 2002 World Cup.

So Capello is determined to make sure that his third and final World Cup as manager of China is a successful one.

“I have been a manager for 30 years and I have been to the World Cup four times,” Capello said.

“I have never been happy with the World Cup as a coach.”
Hamilton races to Canada victory

Lewis Hamilton won the Canadian Grand Prix on Sunday, finishing ahead of two former champions for his fifth win of the season. The Mercedes driver had a comfortable lead over Sebastian Vettel and Kimi Raikkonen, who finished second and third respectively.

Hamilton, who leads the championship by 37 points, took the lead in the early stages of the race and never looked back. Vettel and Raikkonen were unable to challenge him throughout the race.

Dovizioso stays cool to win searing Catalan Grand Prix

It was a strange race, we couldn’t push any lap because the rear tyre drops a lot, but I had the speed so I was able to manage and stay on the front without pushing,” Dovizioso said.

The Ducati rider had been happy to sit in the back of the Honda riders as Pedrosa led from pole position. However, Dovizioso made his move with nine laps to go and quickly moved into a comfortable lead with Marquez unable to close the gap in the final stages.

Marquez delivered Moto2 win on home soil

Alex Marquez produced flawless performance to win the Catalan GP from pole position yesterday in a gritty battle with Oliveira at the Catalan Grand Prix yesterday. Marquez, the brother of MotoGP world champion Marc Marquez, is clearly inspired by his home crowd as the only Spanish rider at the Catalan Grand Prix for Sunday.

Spain’s Joan Mir finished second after leading for a large part of the race. Oliveira was third, leaving his teammate behind in the standings.

Fiji eye Six Nations scalps to boost World Cup hopes

Australia coach Michael Cheika has been hailed for his new-look side that has taken an energetic approach to their World Cup preparations.

The win was Fiji’s first against a tier-one nation for 17 years. The Ferns had been looking to improve their performance in the last year after falling to the 15th-ranked Italy, having lost all four of their previous Tests to Fiji.

Cheika now has a few days to contemplate what they will do in the next few weeks. He’s had a very good idea, said Michael Cheika, although there were some tests for optimism in the coming weeks.

"We’re going to get confident on a few weeks playing our own game. This challenge this weekend will be tough on a few weeks’ game. We didn’t execute as well against the Wallabies and made a few mistakes, but nobody said it’s easy to do that thing.

"It was a strange weekend for everybody to manage the track, the grip, the temperature, it was very difficult so that was that.

"It was a strange race, we couldn’t push any lap because the rear tyre drops a lot, but the speed so I was able to manage and stay on the front without pushing."

The baseball being hit in the first inning and cleared to center field, bringing the Los Angeles Dodgers with his potential and the Cincinnati Reds with their athleticism. Seager delivered a second double of the evening, driving in the first run to give the Dodgers a 1-0 lead. His game-winning hit, a sacrifice fly in the 10th, allowed the team to send the game to extra innings. Otero was given a hit in extra innings, leading to a walk-off win for the Dodgers.

The walk-off hit in the first inning was Seager's second of the game, setting the stage for a dramatic finish. Otero continued to dominate, striking out six batters and allowing only one hit in the extra innings. The Dodgers' bullpen also pitched well, with Wood and another pitcher each going two innings without allowing a run.

Bolt shakes off nerves to win final race on home soil

I don’t think I have ever been that nervous to run the 100 metres. Just the atmosphere and the people they came out and gave me. It was really nerve-wracking.

Seager’s walk-off double does the job for Dodgers

In his sixth career start, Chas Woodruff allowed a single to the lead-off hitter and turned a double play with two outs to end the inning. The bullpen settled in, allowing only two hits in five innings. Otero worked around a walk in the fourth inning, striking out the side in the fifth.

Bolt’s walk-off double in the 10th inning against the Cincinnati Reds was his second of the game, allowing the Dodgers to win the game, 4-2. The victory improves the Dodgers’ record to 41-34 and puts them back in first place in the NL West. Otero recorded his second career save, and the Dodgers bullpen continues to be one of the best in the league.

Morgan backs Stokes to set new marks

"We had a little bit of the conditions. We had a couple of sessions here, and we are much very prepared for that."

England's Jos Buttlers' run has not just come straight out of nowhere, he added. "It's been a long time." Buttlers' runs have come as a result of 350 in 130 overs during his 12-hour knock in the Champions Trophy. Buttlers' record of 100 against Australia at the Oval, and 99 for England against India during the Champions Trophy, had helped Buttlers to set a new world record of 250 for England in that innings.
